

Freelance Youth Theatre & Film Workshop Leaders

Strange Town offers opportunities in the performing arts to young people aged 5 to 25 in Edinburgh.

As a company, our aim at Strange Town is to enable young people to fulfil their creative potential. Whatever your background or experience, we believe everyone has creative and artistic abilities. We help young people to recognise and develop these abilities through peer and professional encouragement, participation and example.

We are looking for drama facilitators to lead one or more of our new youth classes in theatre and film running April – June 2022.

These leaders will take responsibility for the planning and delivery of weekly workshops across a term in either theatre or film.

They will be responsible for:

- Developing participants' drama skills
- Encouraging confidence and participation
- Ensuring the welfare of all participants
- Creating a safe, fun environment for learning

Hourly Rate: £25 per hour

Contract: Fridays, 8 weeks, 29th April – 17th June

Hours: Dependent on class

We are looking to launch 3 new classes on Friday afternoons at the Broughton St Mary's Church on Bellevue Crescent, Edinburgh.

These 3 classes are:

- A 5-7s Introductory Drama Class: a gentle introduction to the world of drama, with a focus on games and skills.

This class would run from 1.30-2.30pm for one hour.

- An 8-12s Drama Skills Class: a chance for those new to drama to settle in or with an interest in developing drama skills in addition to acting, such as writing, costume and technical design, without the pressure of end-of-term performances.

This class will run from 2.45-4.15pm for one hour and a half.

- A 12-18s Film Class: a class focused on all aspects of screen work, including acting for screen, editing and filming your own short films on handheld devices, and writing screenplays.

This class will run from 4.30-6.30pm for two hours.

When applying, please indicate whether you wish to be considered for all the classes or specify the class you are most interested in.

Please email a CV detailing your relevant experience with references and a short introduction about yourself to James Beagon at james@strangetown.org.uk using the title Freelance Workshop Leader.
